We have redone our roof using as much of the old tiles as we could. The Stacks of tiles were inspiring to me. The varied color, the patina, the play of shadows. Even how it was impossible to stack them straight became something of beauty.

It inspired a scarf of short rows, crooked and curved, with a hint of shadow here and there...

Yarn and needles:
Any combination that gives you an even and pretty stockinette stitch. Playing with variegated, multicolored yarns is a fun idea for this scarf!
I used a Trekking Sock yarn as MC (red) and M&K Ekobomull as CC. (black)

MC = Main color
CC = Contrasting color

Notes:
K - knit
K2tog - knit two together
M1L - make one left
M1R - make one right
P - purl
Sl - slip
st(s) - stitch(es)
tbl - through back loop
wyif - with yarn in front

XC - Cross Colors -
Cross your two yarns so that the thread not used next is bound behind your working yarn.

w&t - wrap and turn -
Wrap the next stitch like this: Bring yarn to front, slip one stitch, bring yarn back, replace the slipped stitch on left needle, turn work.

When coming back to this wrapped stitch - knit stitch and wrapping yarn together as one. From the purl side this must be done twisted through back loop for the “trick” to work. An alternative to this technique is “German short rows” which gives the same pretty result.
